Study Session No1 - Love And Life

Dr Dominian outlines the skills needed to sustain a loving relationship taking into account the changes in moral, social and traditional roles within marriage – especially in the role of women in society over the last 50 years. He shares with us his thoughts on the greatness and infinity of the universe and compares it with “the unique individual personal relationship of love between people” given to us by God to live out in our lives and in our marriages.

Possible questions for Study No1

1. As the roles of husband and wife are working towards equalisation, what can we say about our own lives, as a couple, which have sustained our love, friendship and companionship through life?
2. How can we communicate the concept of faithfulness and forgiveness in this present culture?
3. Is it possible to train for the skills of relationship?

Aims. To examine love and marriage problems in modern society. To look for positive and negative aspects. To discuss our role and the church's in the education of relationships.

Objectives. To find positive solutions to negative situations. To apply this to our own marriage. To discover factors contributory to crisis. And to act upon them
